Battle of Champion Hill.

CHAMPION HILL BALTLE FIELD, 26 Miles East of Vicksburg, May 19, 1863—9: 80 P. M.

Special to the Times .- The federal army ander Gen. Grant has won another glorious victory. A furious battle, lasting nearly five hours, has resulted in the defeat of the enemy at all points, with the loss of from two to three thousand killed and wounded, three complete batteries heavy rifled connon, besides several single pieces, and from 1,500 to 2,000 prisoners in our hands, and an immense quantity of small, arms and camp equipage. Our success is signal and complete. Nothing mars the intense satisfaction of officers and men but GENERAL ORDER NO. 1. the heavy sacrifice of life by which it was achieved. Early this morning Gen. McClernand's corps was put in motion. Gen. Hovey's division was on the main road from Jackson to Vicksburg, but the balance of the corps was a few miles to the southward. The best bought, best selected, best assorted and mos On a parallel road, Gen. McPherson's corps followed Hovey's division closely.

At 9 o'clock Gen., Hovey discovered the enemy in front on Champion Hill, to the left of the road near Baker's Creek, apparently in force. Skirmishes were thrown out, and the division advanced cautiously and slowly to give Gen. McPherson's advance division, under Gen. Logan, time to come within supporting distance. Gen. Hovey's division advanced across an open field at the foot of Champion Hill, in line of battle, at 11 o'clock, and commenced battle.

The hill itself is covered with timber. and is, in fact, but an abrupt terminus of a high ridge running north and south, flanked on both sides with deep ravines and gulleys, in many places covered with an almost impenetrable growth of scrubby white oak bushes. The rebels appeared deficient in artillery throughout the battle, but opened with a rather heavy fire from a four gun battery of rifled six-pounders, planted about 400 yards back from the brow of the

The woods on both sides of the road leading up the face of the hill, and winding back on the ridge a mile or more, were filled with sharpshooters, supported by in-

Here the battle began in earnest, as our men entered the edge of the timber, and raged terribly from 11 o'clock till between

Gen. A. P. Hovey's division carried the heights in gallant style, and, making a lash on the first battery, drove the gunners from their posts and captured the pieces. The 11th Indiana claim the honor of carrying the battery. The rebels lay thick in the vicinity of the guns, and their horses were more than half killed gun cor. horses were more than half killed, gun carriages and caissons broken and overturned, while knapsacks, blankets, small arms and other debris attested the deadly struggle or the ground. The colors of the 31st Alabama regiment were captured there, also, but I failed to learn by whose hands. Our purcha At this juncture, Mitchell's Ohio battery was opened about 80 yards from the brow of the hill. The rebels made a dash for it, and nothing but the fleetness of the horses prevented its capture. Capt. Mitchell was wounded, and is belived to have fallen into the enemy's bands.

At this juncture the rebels appeared reinforced with fresh troops on that wing, and redoubled their efforts to hold, the position and dislodge our troops on the hill. Gen. Hovey was slowly driven back to the brow of the hill, but a brigade from Gen. Quimby was ordered to his support, and the ground was speedily reoccupied by us, and he rebels finally repulsed. At the commencement of the engagement, Gen. Logan's division marched past the brow of the hill, and, forming in line of battle on the right of Hovey, advanced in grand style, sweeping everything before

At the edge of the woods, in front of Gen. Logan, the battle was of the most desperate character imaginable. The rattle was incessant from the first moment of for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted the engagement, and blent in a continuous and deadly roar, in which reports were so blended that a single discharge was rarely heard. Not a man flinched or a line wavered in this division, so far as I could discover. All behaved like veterans, and moved to new positions with the conscious tread of victory. Two batteries were captured by this division, and enough hard fighting was done to immortalize it. Besides this, it captured a large portion of prisoners, small arms, &c. Between 3 and 4 o'clock Gen. Osterbaus' and Gen. McArthur's divisions came into per yard. action on the extreme left, and completed what had been so auspiciously carried forward. They were both miles away when the engagement began, but were brought forward with all the dispatch possible. The enemy were in full retreat soon after, and these divisions pursued till nine o'clock, and are now encamped at Edward's Station, eight miles beyond the battle magple; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine french flowers, rose bads, &c., &c. The usual libground.

Unfortunately we had no cayalry; pur suit was therefore out of the question. From rebel prisoners we learn that Gen. Pemberton commanded in person, and Gens. Fitz Hugh Lee and Gregg, who commanded at the battle near Raymond, and others of note, had subordinate commands. From them we also learn that great dissatisfaction exists towards Gen. Pemberton. He is accused by many of selling out to Gen. Grant; also sof planning military operations for the last four weeks so as to: insure the latter's success: By way of offset we presume there are those north who within two months, have charged General Grant with little less than imbecility, incapacity, and general unfitness to command. Another case of extremes meeting, in abuse of men who have both unquestionably done: all in their power to serve their respective superiors in authority. It is too early yet to do more than approximate our loss. I think it will be about 1,000 killed and wounded. It may prove less, but cannot be much more, I think. But few officers of distinction are injured. The 24th Indiand regiment lost 100 men, and Lieut. Col. Some gold and silver cell and demand notes. North-Swain, commanding, is killed. Maj. every mile of road be not contested. The men are enthusiastic wherever Gen. Grant appears. Gen. G. has been fairly outdoing himself of late, and his reckless exposure of himself on the field begets unbounded admiration among the privates.

Well authenticated cases of rebel barbarity to wounded men can be enumerated. No less than three different men who were shot down to day in battle were subsequently sabred by rebels when they temporarily Simple, Strong & Reliable. retook the ground. The men lived to narrate the atrocity, but will scarcely recover. I have been slow to believe such stories, and know that such instances are rare, but and know that such instances are rare, but they do occasionally occur, to the disgrace FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE of our common humanity.

The list of killed and wounded will be sent at the earliest possible moment; but, as we march and fight alternately, delay may be unavoidable.

Battle of Champion Hill.

CHAMPION HILL BARTLE FIELD, 26 MILES BAST OF VICESBURG, May 19, 1863—9: 30 P. M. Special to the Times.—The federal army inder Gen. Grant has won another glorious victory. A furious battle, lasting nearly five hours, has resulted in the defeat of the enemy at all points, with the loss of from two to three thousand killed and wounded, three complete batteries heavy rifled connon, besides several single pieces, and from 1,500 to 2,000 prisoners in our hands, and an immense quantity of small arms and camp equipage. Our success is sig-nal and complete. Nothing mars the in-tense satisfaction of officers and men but the heavy sacrifice of life by which it was achieved.

Early this morning Gen. McClernand's corps was put in motion. Gen. Hovey's division was on the main road from Jackson to Vicksburg, but the balance of the corps was a few miles to the southward.

On a parallel road, Gen. McPherson's corps followed Hovey's division closely.

At 9 o'clock Gan. Hovey division of the company of the best bought, bost selected, best assurted and most extensive stock of the company of the company

At 9 o'clock Gen. Hovey discovered the enemy in front on Champion Hill, to the left of the road near Baker's Creek, apparently in force. Skirmishes were thrown out, and the division advanced cautiously and slowly to give Gen. McPherson's advance division, under Gen. Logan, time to come within supporting distance. Gen. Hovey's division advanced across an open field at the foot of Champion Hill, in line of battle, at 11 o'clock, and commenced

The hill itself is covered with timber, and is, in fact, but an abrupt terminus of a high ridge running north and south, flanked on both sides with deep ravines and gulleys, in many places covered with an almost impenetrable growth of scrubby white oak bushes. The rebels appeared deficient Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods in artillery throughout the battle, but opened with a rather heavy fire from a four gun battery of rifled six pounders, planted about 400 yards back from the brow of the leading up the face of the hill, and winding back on the ridge a mile or more, were fill ed with sharpshooters, supported by infor the ground. The colors of the 31st Alabama regiment were captured there, also, but I failed to learn by whose hands.

Here the battle began in earnest, as our men entered the edge of the timber, and raged terribly from 11 o'clock till between Gen. A. P. Hovey's division carried the

At this juncture, Mitchell's Ohio battery was opened about 80 yards from the brow of the kill. The rebels made a dash for it, and nothing but the fleetness of the horses prevented its capture. Capt. Mitchell was wounded, and is belived to have fallen into the enemy's hands.

At this juncture the rebels appeared re-inforced with fresh troops on that wing, and redoubled their efforts to hold the position and dislodge our troops on the hill.

Gen. Hovey was slowly driven back to at old prices. Our stock of hill, but a brigade from Gen. Quimby was ordered to his support, and the ground was speedily reoccupied by us, and the rebels finally repulsed.

At the commencement of the engagement, Gen. Logan's division marched past the brow of the hill, and, forming in line of battle on the right of Hovey, advanced in grand style, sweeping everything before

At the edge of the woods, in front of Gen. Logan, the battle was of the most desperate character imaginable. The rattle was incessant from the first moment of the engagement, and blent in a continuous and deadly roar, in which reports were so blended that a single discharge was rarely heard. Not a man flinched or a line waver-ed in this division, so far as I could discover. All behaved like veterans, and moved to new positions with the conscious tread

Two batteries were captured by this division, and enough hard fighting was done to immortalize it. Besides this, it captured a large portion of prisoners, small arms, &c.
Between 3 and 4 o'clock Gen. Osterhaus' and Gen. McArthur's divisions came into action on the extreme left, and compl what had been so anspiciously carried forward. They were both miles away when the engagement began, but were brought forward with all the dispatch possible.

The enemy were in full retreat soon after, and these divisions pursued till nine o'clock, and are now encamped at Edward's Station, eight miles beyond the battle ground. Unfortunately we had no cayalry; pur suit was therefore out of the question From rebel prisoners we learn that Gen Pemberton commanded in person, and Gens. Fitz Eugh Lee and Gregg, who com-manded at the battle near Raymond, and others of note, had subordinate commands. From them we also learn that great dissatsfaction exists towards Gen. Pemberton, He is accused by many of seiling out to Gen. Grant; also, of planning military operations for the last four weaks so as to nsure the latter's success. By way of off. set we presume there are those north who within two months, have charged General Grant with little less than imbecility, incapacity, and general unfitness to command. Another case of extremes meeting, in abuse of men who have both unquestionably done: all in their power to serve their respective superiors in authority. It is too early yet to do more than approximate our loss. I think it will be about 1,000 killed and wounded. It may prove less, but cannot be much more, I think. But few officers of distinction are injured. The 24th Indiana regiment lost 100 men, and Lient, Col. Swain, commanding, is killed. Maj. Jones.

an Alabama battery. Not a general or staff officer on our side was hurt.
Colonel Bouck, of the 18th Wisconsin, oformed me, at the close of the engage ment, that but two privates in his regiment were injured. This has been the hottest and most bril-liant fight in the southwest for several months, and may only be a prelude to others of the same character in store for us within three days. I say three days, be-cause within that time Grant will have marched to the suburbs of Vicksburg, if escaped unburt, and subsequently captured every mile of road be not contested. The men are enthusiastic wherever Gen. Grant appears. Gen. G. has been fairly outdoing himself of late, and his reckless expo-sure of himself on the field begets unbounded admiration among the privates.

Well authenticated cases of rebel bar barity to wounded men can be enumerated. No less than three different men who were shot down to day in battle were subsequently sabred by rebels when they temporarily retook the ground. The men lived to narrate the atrocity, but will scarcely recover. I have been slow to believe such stories, and know that such instances are rare, but they do occasionally occur, to the disgrace of our common humanity.

The list of killed and wounded will be sent at the earliest possible moment; but, as we march and fight alternately, delay may be unavoidable.

Vicksburg.

The reported capture of Vicksburg is probably premature. No dispatches confirmatory of it have yet been received. The intest advices are to Friday night. Our troops had gained great advantages, and it was expected the city would be taken on Saturday. The enemy, however, maintained a firm resistance, and the final battle will no doubt be desperate and bloody. Pharisoes in Politics.

There is a class of politicians in this country who fancy that a middle course, a sort of "cow boy" position, indicates wisdom. They are down on the "extremes." There is nothing positively good that can be obtained unmixed with avil, and they (as they think) are the only judges how the mixture shall be compounded. It is a class of visionaries who always compromise with the devil when this personage is willing, but who never accept an advantage over him, without yielding some thing in return, whether hedemands it or not. They made good Tyler men in the days of that hermophrodite administration. They were Fillmore men, Bell and Everett men; and new they cannot endure the "extremes' of anconditional hatred towards the rebellion and its cause, nor quite stomach the rebels. It is a compound between the two -a sort of mule in politics-that excites their admiration. These people always imagine that they are going to form a great middle party which will eat up and destroy the other two, but they are never blessed with the fruition of their hopes. They have "great expectations," and small realization. There are signs about that these neutrals are abroad in the land now waiting for the sky to fall that they may catch larks. There is a sample of them up at the Bay in this state, who wants Vallaudigham strongly intrenched, on the left, on the east punished, but must have a radical roasted position, playing on the enemy's works. is another sample at the other end of the Carr's division, charged across an open that this is a good year for political cunuchs. the successes of the federal arms, and that its. 1,500 to 2,000 prisoners captured. Almighty God has certainly ordained its destruction in this country, where it has been more offensive and immoral than in any other, and until it is utterly extinct, this war cannot, from the nature of things, cease. I am in favor of a cessation of hosilities at as early a day as possible : therefore, I am in favor of the President's procamation. This state was made for white people and free labor, and when slavery no longer blights its borders we may expect to see the church and the school house take the place of the slave pen and market.

The Madison Patriot denies that Burnside or Judge Leavitt are democrats. Notwithstanding the denial, there is no doubt of the fact. They have always acted with the democratic party, and never with any other. In addition, we will mention that Capt. Cutts, the Judge Advocate of the court martial which tried Vallandigham, is a brother of Mrs. Douglas. When it is considered that republicans have had nothing to do with this matter, except that the President modified the sentence, the somplaints of the democratic papers ought to be confined to their own side of the house. YAZOO RIVOI, MAY 20. To Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy:

On the morning of the 15th, I came over to the Yazoo, to be ready to co-operate with General Grant. Leaving two of the ironclads at Red river, one at Grand Gulf, one in the Yazoo, left me a small force; still, arday. I disposed of them to the best advantage. On the 18th, at noon, firing was heard in the rear of Vicksburg, which assured me that Gen. Grant was approaching the city. The cannonading was kept up furiously for sometime, when by the aid of glasses. I discovered a company of our artillery advancing, taking position, and driving the rebels before them. I immediately saw the left of Snyder's Bluff, and that the rebjoining the forces in the city. I dispatched the De Kalb, Lieut. Commander Walker: Choctaw, Lieut. Commander Breese, up to the Yazoo to open communication in that way with Gens. Grant and Sherman. This I succeeded in doing, and n three hours received letters from Gens. Grant, Sherman and Steele, informing me of his vast success, and asking me to send up provisions, which was at once done. In the meantime Lieut. Com. Walker, in the De Kalb, pushed on to Haines' Bluff, ating the day before, and a party remained behind in the hopes of destroying or taking away a large amount of ammunition on hand. When they saw the gunboats they came out and left everything in good order, guns, fort, tents and equipage of all as the capture of Haines' Bluff and 14 guns was reported to me, I shoved up the The Wisconsin State Convention of gunboats from below Vicksburg to lire at the hill batteries, which fire was kept up for two or three hours. At midnight they moved up to the town and fired on it for about an hour, and continued it at intervals during the night to annoy the garrison.

that Gen. Grant was approaching the city.

The cannonading was kept up furiously for sometime, when by the aid of glasses, I discovered a company of our artillery advancing, taking position, and driving the before them. I immediately saw that Gen. Sherman's division had come on els at that place had been cut off from joining the forces in the city. I dispatched the De Kalb, Lieut. Commander Walker; Choctaw, Lieut. Commander Ramsey Romeo, Petrel, and Forest Rose; all under the command of Lient. Commander Breese, up to the Yazoo to open communication in that way with Gens. Grant and Sherman. This I succeeded in doing, and in three hours received letters from Gens. Grant, Sherman and Steele, informing me of his vast success, and asking me to send up provisions, which was at once done. in the meantime Lieut. Com. Walker, in the De Kalb, pushed on to Haines' Bluff. which the enemy had commenced evacuating the day before, and a party remained The Madison Patriot was never in behind in the hopes of destroying or takon hand. When they saw the gunboats they came out and left everything in good order, guns, fort, tents and equipage of all kinds, which fell into our hands. As soon as the capture of Haines' Bluff and 14 gans was reported to me, I shoved up the gunboats from below Vicksburg to fire at the hill batteries, which fire was kept up for two or three hours. At midnight they moved up to the town and fired on it for about an hour, and continued it at intervals during the night to annoy the garrison.

On the 19th I placed six mortars in poto the effect that a gentlemen had recently sition with orders to fire night and day as effected in that city an insurance on his rapidly as they could. The works at Haines' Bluff are very formidable. There are 14 of the heaviest kind of mounted 8 and 10inch and seven and a half inch rifled cannon, with ammunition enough to last a long seige. As the gun carriages might again fall into the hands of the enemy I had them burnt, blew up the magazine and destroyed works generally. I also burnt the encamp-ments which were permanently and remarkably well constructed, looking as if the rebels intended to stay for sometime. The works and encampment covered many acres of ground.

The fortifications and rifle pits proper of Haines' Bluff, extend about a mile and a quarter. Such net work of defences I never saw before. The rebels were a year in constructing them, and all were rendered useless in an hour. As soon as I got through with the destruction of the magazines and other works. I started Lieut. Com. Walker up the Yazoo river, with sufficient force to destroy all the enemy's property in that direction, with orders to return with all despatch, and to only proceed as far as Yazoo City, where the rebels had a navy yard and a large number of store

NEW YORK, May 25. A Washington letter to the Commercial says Gen. Bulter has not been ordered there. Prominent senators have stated that all efforts to secure a command for him prove futire. It is equally improbable that there will be any cabinet changes which will give him a position, as the President has declined to listen to the pressure for the removel of Stanton or Seward.

New York, May 25. The following is additional by the Hiernian : The London Observer looks on the mission of Mr. Evarts to London, from the United States, as an earnest of the good feeling which emanates from the Washing-

The Loudon Times' city article argues that a protraction of the war, or even a subjugation of the south, must involve the federal finances in rula. It says: "These facts are being recognized in Europe, and render the possibility of a federal loan entirely out of the question." The Continental political news is unim-

When the Polar Star left, the mortar boats above the city were throwing shell into it. Part of the cupola of the court youse had been knocked off. One of the mortar boats had sunk from injuries retar. The rebels replied occasionally with shell, one striking near a mortar boat, exploded, covering it with mad.

The gunboats below Vicksburg had commenced the attack on the lower batteries. The Choctaw, Baron De Kalb, and two other gunboats have started up to Yavoo Deserters from the rebels say they have vast quantities of supplies in Vicksburg, and that they will hold to the last.

It is thought Johnston may yet receive sufficient reinforcements to enable him to attack Grant in the rear. We are momentarily expecting dispatchs from Memphis.

CAIRO, May 25. Special to Chicago Tribune.—No information has reached here, official or unofficial, of the capture of the town of Vicks-No boat from below had arrived at burg. Memphis, up to an hour ago, as we are inormed by telegraph.

All boats at Milliken's Bend and Young's Point had been sent up the Yazoo, proba-bly to Haines' Bluff, for the purpose, no doubt, of preparing to meet any possible contingencies. It may, therefore, be 24 house yet before we have anything definite.

The last positive news we have came up to-day by the Polar Star. She left the mouth of the Yazoo on Thursday at 1 p. m. The battle was still raging. Our land forces were in the rear, and Porter's fleet below and the mortar boats above. It is believed that large numbers of women and children are yet in Vicksburg.

The rebel force at Haines' Bluff had evacuated it and fallen back inside their fortifications at Vicksburg before our forces came up. Gen. Johnston had evidently intended to do the same, but was prevented by General Grant in getting between him and the forifications. Johnston is thus left out in the cold. It is possible the rebels may hold us at bay several days, or even a week. You may not be able to make the joyful announcement for a few days.

Madison, Wis., May 25. Special to the Chicago Times.—There has been most enthusiatic rejoicing to-day over the splendid news from Gen. Grant's army. At midnight on Saturday, 13 guns were fired for Grant's succession of brilliant victories. A little after midnight last night 34 guns were fired for the news of Vicks burg's capture, and when its fall is official ly confirmed, it is proposed to have a grand demonstration.

From the Richmond Examiner, May 20. The attention of the country is at this moment fixed upon the important campaign of Grant against Vicksburg and Jackson, Miss. From our Western exchanges we glean some intelligence from that quarter, that will be read with interest. A correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser says:

"Gen. Pemberton is represented to express the follect confidence in his ability to check Grant and capture the detachments which have been sent inland in order to turn the town of Vickeburg.

"The people are determined to resist to the last, and with the military force now here, there is no doubt but that we can successfully hold our own. The President has taken measures to provide arms and equipments for all the men the Governor may raise throughout the State, and everything goes to show that the determination of the Mississippians to defend their soil, is cheerful, enthusiastic, and universal.-Three hundred citizens of Brandon are drilling every day—the same is the case relative to their population at Canton, Meidian, and other towns; but it would be imprudent to state how many have shoullered their muskets. Suffice it that hardly any one is backward at the call of Gov.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 26. o'clock p. m.

Vicksburg was not yet taken, nor have believes Grant has no occasion to fear from the concentration of any considerable force in his rear. The only available force for this purpose are 6,000 under Johnston, a small number driven away from Pemberton under Loring, and one or two brigades from Port Hudson, not more than 15,000 men at the outside.

A Murfreesboro special of the 25th to the Herald. says : The rebels assert that Grant has been beaten, but give no particu-lars. This is probably a canard.

WASHINGTON, May 25. Special to the World.-The World's correspondent with Grant's army arrived to day from Richmond, after a tour of three It is affirmed that Haines' Bluff was weeks in the southern states. There are no forces in the interior of the confederacy. Their railroads are in bad condition. The strength of the rebel army may be put down at 300,000 men, half of whom are in Middle Tennessee and Virginia.

The rebels robbed and maltreated our wounded in Alabama. At Atlanta, Auguta, Columbia, Lenoxville and Weldon, our prisoners were greeted with substantial tokens of kindly feelings. solid men of the south are anxiously ask-ing what terms we can offer and what is to be their fate. The impression is gaining ground in the coufederacy that we can out last them and over-run their country.

In relation to the capture of Col. Straight's command a correspodent states that Straight fought till his ammunition was exhausted and the animals gave out. For-est's loss was 500, ours 50 disabled. Bichmond is bare of troops one regiment going south daily.

New York, May 26. The Tribune's Murfreesboro despate says that Vallandigham declared himself loyal to the United States, and his escort were taking their prisoner to the confederate authorities. The correspondent deems t probable the assumed enemy would refuse to receive him. He was given to understand by Rosecrans that if he should arrange to return to our lines, the President's orders to carry the original sentence into effect would be executed.

Times dispatch.—It is rumored that Gen Butler is to be assigned to the command of the department of the Ohio. Burnside designed to be relieved. No credit is giv en by the authorities to the rumer that the rebels are preparing for another invasion of Kentacky.

The secretary of war says that in less than six months we shall have 200,000 negro troops in the field.

Herald dispatch .- There is some trouble over the probable destination of Gen. Burnside. He will shortly arrive to try and settle the matter. It seems Stanton and Gov. Johnson desire him to go to one point, while Halleck and Rosecrans think he should go to another. Private letters from substantial citizens of Louisiana state that she will willingly re-ent r the Union assoon as the armed hordes of the confederacy are driven from her borders.

World's dispatch.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 23d, says it places no faith in the speakers at the Vallandigham meeting in New York. It says Govs. Seymour and Hant are no better than Sumner or Chase may be not so good, not even as good as Burnside.

The Enquirer has no sympathy with Vallandigham, and says he ought to be sent at once beyond our lines.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Herald: Six: - I happened to be in the vicinity of the peace meeting on Monday evening, and listened for a few minutes to the proceedings at Stand No. 2. During the progress of the meeting an old gentleman was introduced, whose name I did not learn. His speech was short, and too good to be kept from the people. I give it to you word for word, for it was short and pointed. He commenced:

Boller Meeting.

At the relief meeting last evening, the following named committee was appointed to canvass the city to solicit donations of sanitary supplies and money in aid of our sick and wounded soldiers at Vicksburg: 1st Ward-Mrs. Daniel Wilcox, Mrs. A. A. Jackson, Mrs. R. B. Treat, Mr., C. L. Noggle, Mr. L. A. Hudson, Mr. J. T.

Wright, jr. 32d Ward-Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Hollister. Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Pattison, Mr. Ball, Mr. Wingate.

3d Ward-Mrs. Eldridge, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Burgess, Mr. Burgess, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Janks, Mr. Patton. 4th Ward-Mrs. O. J. Wright, Miss Maria Clark, Mrs. Williston, Mrs. Miltimore. Mr. Cometock, Mr. Herkimer, Mr. Riker, Mr. J. L. Kimball. "It'is necessary that the donations should be liberal, and sent in promptly to the stores of Geo, R. Curtis, west side, and O. J. Dearbon, east aide. The meeting adjourned to Lappin's Hall, this evening, at half past seven. The committee earneatly desire a full attendance. R. B. TREAT, Chairman. C. MINER, Becretary.

CONCRET FOR THE BUNGFIT OF SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—The pupils of the Institute for the Blind will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music on Friday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, at Lappin's Hall. The proceeds will be given to the Ladies' Aid Society for the relief of the soldiers wounded in the late battle.

DANCING .- Prof. Shaw has been instructing a class in dancing at the hall in the Myers House, for some weeks past. We believe those who have patronized him have tion and the proficiency of his pupils. The stances which enables to bake a full batch practice of public dancing is not to be comin the fire chamber. The only perfect Air Tight cook intimate acquaintances, it is regarded as will save its cost in three years in mel. No waste of heat; no waste of fuel; perfectly air-tight; will retain fire in the chamber for twelve hours without adding mended, but at social parties and among ment. It is with this view that Prof. Shaw instructs his class, not only in dancing, but | Every Stove Warranted to Give Satisfaction. in social intercourse. His ideas in this respect are sensible and practical, and are such as should commend themselves to all. We trust that the present class is not the. only one which will receive the benefit of Prof. Shaw's instruction in our city.

Crors.-We are having splendid weather for the growing crops. Wheat is looking remarkably well, and the same may be said, of cate and barley. The chinch bug is not so active as last year, and the young grain is pushing forward so rapidly as give hope that these pests will be "too late" in their work of destruction. We do not think there was ever more grain sowed in Bock county than the present season, not withstanding so many of our agricultural laborers have gone to the war.

SOCIAL Hor.—Benefit to be given to D. E. Shaw and family, at the Myers House, on Friday evening, May 29th, to which all patrone and their friends are invited. Dancing to commence at 9 P. M., close at 1 A. M. Tickets $1.

Union Clus.-On account of the Soldiers Aid Meeting in Lappin's Hall last evening, the election of officers was postponed until next Monday evening. 8, A. HUDSON, Pres't.

Retter Meeting.

At the relief meeting last evening, the following named committee was appointed to canvass the city to solicit donations of sanitary supplies and money in aid of our sick and wounded soldiers at Vicksburg: 1st Ward-Mrs. Daniel Wilcox. Mrs. A.

A. Jackson, Mrs. R. B. Treat, Mr. C. L. Noggle, Mr. L. A. Hudson, Mr. J. T. Wright, jr. 2d Ward-Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Hollister. Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Pattison, Mr.

Ball, Mr. Wingate. 3d Ward-Mrs. Eldridge, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Burgess, Mr. Burgess, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Jenks, Mr. Patten.

4th Ward-Mrs. O. J. Wright, Miss Maria Clark, Mrs. Williston, Mrs. Miltimore, Mr. Comstock, Mr. Herkimer, Mr. Riker, Mr. J. L. Kimball.

"It is necessary that the donations should be liberal, and sent in promptly to the stores of Geo. R. Curtis, west side, and O. J. Dearbon, east side.

The meeting adjourned to Lappin's Hall, this evening, at half past seven. The committee earneatly desire a full attendance. R. B. TREAT, Chairman,

C. MINER, Secretary.

CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS .- The pupils of the Institute for the Blind will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music on Friday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, at Lappin's Hall. The proceeds will be given to the Ladies' Aid Society for the relief of the soldiers wounded in the late battle.

Dancing,-Prof. Shaw has been instructing a class in dancing at the hall in the Muers House, for some weeks past. We believe those who have patronized him have been well pleased with his mode of instruction and the proficiency of his pupils. The practice of public dencing is not to be commended, but at social parties and among in the fire chamber. The only perfect Air-Tight cook intimate acquaintances, it is regarded as will save its next in three years in tuel. No waste of heat; no waste of tuel; perfectly at-right; will retain the chamber for twelve hours without adding ment. It is with this view that Prof. Shaw instructs his class, not only in dancing, but in graceful deportment and easy manners in social intercourse. His ideas in this respect are sensible and practical, and are such as should commend themselves to all. We trust that the present class is not the only one which will receive the benefit of Prof. Shaw's instruction in our city.

Czcrs,-We are having splendid weath er for the growing crops. Wheat is looking remarkably well, and the same may be said, of oats and barley. The chinch bug is not so active as last year, and the young grain is pushing forward so rapidly as give hope that these pests will be "too late" in their work of destruction. We do not think there was ever more grain sowed in Hock county than the present season, not withstanding so many of our agricultural laborers have gone to the war,

Social Hor.-Benefit to be given to D. E. Shaw and family, at the Myers House, on Friday evening, May 29th, to which all patrons and their friends are invited.

Dancing to commence at 9 P. M., close at 1 A. M. Tickets $1.

Union Clus -On account of the Soldiers Aid Meeting in Lappin's Hall last evening, the election of officers was postponed until next Monday evening. S. A. HUDSON, Pres't.

We have made the above Reduction in Prises with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourse twe: The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the meant to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their cemmand the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by deing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made as moderate prices. The best designed machines, Radiy Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sume to considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
